

Putting it all together Acrylic Painting Rubric

Teacher: Mrs. McCullers

Student Name: _____ Grade _____

Category	25	20	15	10	Self-Evaluation	Peer-Evaluation	Teacher Evaluation
Planning & Explanation	Student can describe in detail how s/he envisions project & how they intend to reach their goal. Very focused & goal-oriented.	Student can somewhat describe how s/he envisions project and can describe some of the steps s/he will use to reach the goal. Focused with some planning.	Student can describe how s/he envisions the project but finds it difficult to describe how s/he will reach that goal. Let's things evolve in somewhat random manner.	Student thought very little about the project. Is present but is not invested in the project.
Painting	Painting is expressive and detailed. Elements are used to add interest to the project. Student has great control and is able to experiment a little.	Painting is expressive and somewhat detailed. Little use has been made of elements to add interest. Student has basics, but has not "branched" out.	Painting has few details. It is primarily representational with very little use of elements for interest. Student needs to improve control.	The painting lacks almost all detail OR it is unclear what the drawing is intended to be. Student needs to work on control.
Creativity	Student has taken the techniques being studied and applied them in a way that is totally his/her own. The student's personality/voice comes through.	Student has taken the techniques being studied and has used them as a starting place. The student's personality comes through in parts of the project.	Student has copied ideas. There is little evidence of creativity, but the student has done the assignment.	Student has not made much attempt to meet the requirements of the assignment.
Time/Effort	Class time was used wisely. It is clear the student put forth maximum effort.	Class time was used somewhat wisely. Student put forth some effort.	Class time was not used wisely. Student did additional work at home.	Class time was not used wisely and student put in no additional effort.			